

Evidence

142. (1) Any proceedings before the Tribunal shall be conducted without regard to formality and technicality and the Tribunal may—

- (a) procure and receive evidence on oath or affirmation, whether written or oral, and examine any person as a witness, as the Tribunal thinks necessary to procure, receive or examine;
- (b) require the production before it of books, papers, documents, records and things;
- (c) administer the oath, affirmation or statutory declaration, as the case may require;
- (d) seek and receive such other evidence and make such other inquiries as it thinks fit;
- (e) summon the parties to the proceedings or any other person to attend before it to give evidence or to produce any document, record or other thing in his possession or otherwise to assist the Tribunal in its deliberations;
- (f) receive expert evidence; and
- (g) generally direct and do all such things as may be necessary or expedient for the expeditious determination of the claims.

(2) A summons issued under this section shall be served and enforced as if it were a summons issued by a Sessions Court.
