

Rewards

171. The Director General may order any reward as he deems fit to be paid to any person for services rendered in connection with the detection of any offence against this Act or any recovery of tax under this Act.