

Payment basis

27. (1) Any approved person shall account for tax on a payment basis by using a tax fraction,—

- (a) in relation to output tax, on the date payment or other consideration is received; and
- (b) in relation to input tax, on the date payment is made or other consideration is given.

(2) Any person who contravenes this regulation commits an offence.