

Input tax allowed on the acquisition of goods or services by local authority or statutory body

49. Where any local authority or statutory body has acquired goods or services to perform its regulatory and enforcement functions, the local authority or statutory body is entitled to a credit for so much of its input tax that is allowable and reasonable to be attributable to the supplies made or to be made by it.