INTRODUCTION

1. This Industry Guide is prepared to assist you in understanding the Goods and Services Tax and its implications on the Travel Industry.

Overview of Goods and Services Tax (GST)

2. Goods and Services Tax (GST) is a multi-stage tax on domestic consumption. GST is charged on all taxable supplies of goods and services in Malaysia, except those specifically exempted. GST is also charged on importation of goods and services into Malaysia.

3. Payment of tax is made in stages by the intermediaries in the production and distribution process. Although the tax would be paid throughout the production and distribution chain, only the value added at each stage is taxed thus avoiding double taxation.

4. In Malaysia, a person who is registered under the Goods and Services Tax Act 2014 is known as a “registered person”. A registered person is required to charge GST (output tax) on his taxable supply of goods and services made to his customers. He is allowed to claim back any GST incurred on his purchases (input tax) which are inputs to his business. Therefore, the tax itself is not a cost to the intermediaries and does not appear as an expense item in their financial statements.

OVERVIEW OF THE TRAVEL INDUSTRY

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

General on Travel Industry

Q1. Are the service fees charged for the sale of airline tickets issued by IATA (International Air Transport Association) accredited agents subject to GST?

A1. Service fees charged for the sale of air tickets is subject to GST at standard rate for inbound and zero rate for the outbound air tickets. (if the sale of air ticket is in 1 lump sum). If any service fee charged separately from sale of international air tickets is subject to GST at standard rate.

Q2. I am a travel agent who deals with supplies related to the travel industry. What is my taxable turnover?

A2. A travel agent who makes taxable supplies in the travel industry is required to be registered. Hence, you are required to be a registered person if your annual taxable turnover exceeds RM500,000.

Your taxable turnover would comprise of zero rated and standard rated supplies which includes:

(a) Where you act on behalf of a principal, your taxable turnover for providing agency services for a consideration in the form of a commission that you earn;

(b) Where you act in your own name, your taxable turnover will be the commission that you earn as an agent and the value of other taxable supplies which you supply in your name.

Q3. What are zero rated supplies in the travel industry in Malaysia?

A3. Zero rated supplies in the travel industry are related to services consumed or enjoyed overseas, such as:
(a) International transportation including the arranging of international transportation of passengers and goods;

(b) Services wholly performed overseas; and

(c) Services supplied to a person who do not belong in Malaysia and the person is not in Malaysia when the services are performed. It must also benefit a person outside of Malaysia.

Ticketing

Q4. Are sales of domestic or international air tickets subject to GST?

A4. The GST implication on the sale of air tickets for domestic or international flights are as follows:

(a) Sale of domestic air tickets are subject to GST at standard rate;

(b) Sale of International air tickets are subject to GST at zero rate and this will include International transportation of passengers;

   (i) from a place outside Malaysia to another place outside Malaysia (means from any place in the other country to the first entry point in Malaysia);

   (ii) from a place in Malaysia to a place outside Malaysia (means from the last exit point in Malaysia to any place in other country); or

   (iii) from a place outside Malaysia to a place in Malaysia.

These GST treatments are applicable to all modes of transport (air, sea or road).

Q5. Can my client (tourists) claim a refund of the GST amount he has paid as he did not utilize his non-refundable ticket after purchasing it?

A5. Tourist did not utilize his non-refundable ticket after purchasing it:

(a) GST will not be refunded to the client after they have purchased a non-refundable ticket. A sale of ticket for passenger transport is the sale of a right to utilize that particular transportation, such as the right to a seat on a plane, ship etc. Where the recipient of the supply (the intending passenger) does not take up the transportation for whatever reason, his right to travel on the flight, ship, etc. has not been changed or taken away from him.

(a) There has not been any adjustment on the event for GST purposes. The supplier is still liable to account for GST on the supply of the ticket.

Q6. What is the GST treatment on purchase of domestic flight tickets from an airline that cannot supply the transportation and there is no prospect that the tickets will be honored by the airline or any other airline?

A6. In cases where the purchaser is an individual consumer:

(a) Airline customers who have paid for domestic flights which are subsequently cancelled, can seek refund of the ticket price, from the relevant airline or credit card supplier. The GST is inclusive in the final price charged by the airline for the supply of flight, and if the supply is not made, it is contractual matter between the airline and the customer.

(b) Any refund made to the customer will be inclusive of GST.

Travel Agents Commission

Q7. As a travel agent, is my turnover based on my total ticket sales, or my commission?

A7. Annual turnover is based on the value of all taxable supplies you have made in relation to your business. As a travel agent selling on commission only, your taxable turnover will be based on the value of the commission received annually.
Q8. When an airline ticket is purchased by a travel agent using a customer’s credit card, the travel agent sends the credit card number to the airline. The airline then processes the credit card transaction for a payment. Can the travel agent issue a tax invoice or does the invoice need to be issued by the airline company?

A8. In this scenario, the airline is selling the ticket directly to the passenger as the passenger pays the airline directly. Therefore, the airline is the principal and the airline should issue the tax invoice.

Q9. When an airline ticket is purchased by the tour agent using a credit card of the tour agent (e.g. corporate credit card or director’s card on behalf of the tour company), and subsequently the tour agent sells the ticket to the passenger, who should issue a tax invoice?

A9. In this scenario, there are two separate sales transactions: the airline selling to the tour agent; and the tour agent selling to the passenger. The airline should issue a tax invoice to the tour agent for sale of air ticket to the tour agent. In turn, the tour agent is making a sale of air ticket (with a profit mark-up) to the passenger. Accordingly, the tour agent is acting as a principal and should issue a tax invoice for the sale of the air ticket by the tour agent to the passenger.

Outbound Tour

Q10. I am operating a travel agency business that markets overseas land/ground tour package on behalf of an FTA. Do I need to charge GST on the commission charged to the FTA and on the sale of the overseas land/ground tour package to the traveler?

A10. The sale of the outbound package and the agency services are not subject to GST.
Q11. I have booked an outbound tour package to London through AA Travel and Tours. The package includes a pickup from my house to the airport and an onward journey to London. Is the package subject to GST?

A11. The package is a zero rated supply but the pickup from house to airport is subject to GST at a standard rate because the supply is made by a different supplier.

    (If the pickup services from house to airport is included in the outbound tour package, it will be zero rated. If the pickup services charged separately by travel agent, it is subject to GST at a standard rate.)

Q12. Are organized day trips by rail from Malaysia to Bangkok subject to GST?

A12. The organized day trips are not subject to GST and any commission charged by the LTA to the railway authorities in Malaysia are subject to GST at a standard rate.

Inbound Tour

Q13. If an FTA sells an inbound tour package on behalf of LTA, is GST chargeable on the tour package sold or commission charged by the FTA?

A13. The inbound tour package sold and the commission charged by the LTA is subject to GST. The LTA has to account for the GST using the reverse charge mechanism.

Q14. How do I calculate GST on regional packaged tours that I provide (covering Malaysia and neighbouring countries) to a tourist?

A14. Travel products which are to be consumed or enjoyed in Malaysia are subject to GST. Outbound packaged tours are zero rated supplies as it is to be consumed or enjoyed overseas.

    Example 2:

    Rates for the provision of a regional tour package (exclusive of GST):
Time of supply

Q15. If I am a LTA or tour operator who works on commission basis. When is my time of supply to account for tax on the tour services that I render?

A15. Your time of supply is the earliest of the following:

(a) Your services are fully performed

(b) You issue a tax invoice issued to your principal or customers, or

(c) You received payment for your services.

However, if a tax invoice is issued within 21 days after (a), then your time of supply is the date of the issuance of the tax invoice.

Q16. As a travel agent I often make supplies on behalf of my principal. Who is accountable for GST on the supplies made?

A16. You must account for GST if you provide your services to hotels, airline companies etc., in your own name. However, if you are making these supplies on behalf of your principal, then your principal is accountable for the GST imposed and entitled to claim input tax credit on the purchases you made on his behalf. You may seek a disbursement from your principal for the purchases you made in his name.
