3. FAQ
3.1 I make a lump sum payment to Customs. How does Customs know that which account and which return period that payment made should be allocated. Maintaining payment will be made if payment received is valid but the payment is posted to the wrong account or taxable period. Transfer will be done only after receiving an application form the taxpayer. There are two types of maintaining payment:

i. Transferring Payment
   Refers to the transfer of the entire payment made by the following criteria:
   ✓ Payments have been accounted in the taxpayer’s ledger but there is an application by the taxpayer to make an amendment on the return period and taxpayer's account number.

   ✓ Payments have been accounted in the taxpayer’s ledger but there is an application by the taxpayer to transfer payments to other taxpayer’s ledger.

ii. Redirecting Payment
   Refers to the transfer involving the distribution amount to several accounts or taxable period depending on the taxpayer’s application.

3.2 How do I inform Customs to arrange for transfer or redirecting payment?
Application by a taxpayer must be made by email to GST Processing Centre (GPC). Email: gst.payment@customs.gov.my 3.3 Do JKDM accept payment through Telegraphic Transfer?

Payment via Telegraphic Transfer is not available. Taxpayer is advised to use any payment facilities as set out on pages 2 to 4.

3.4 How do I pay GST Import?
GST Import should be paid according to normal importation payment procedure. For GST Import, cheque made will be payable to PENGARAH KASTAM NEGERI.
